

JAPANESE GOVERNMENT SHUBBED GEN. HUERTA

Refused to Act for Dictator
When Diplomatic Relations
Were Broken Off.

Washington, April 29.—The Japanese government, it has been developed, was asked and declined to have given great satisfaction to President Wilson's administration as a significant expression of Japan's "friendliness" towards this country.

The purpose of Japan's action is understood to have been desire to preserve the strictest neutrality between the United States and Mexico.

Among those informed of General Huerta's first choice of Japan to represent Mexico in the United States, the move was construed as an attempt to bring about a change of the great powers with his administration and thus accomplish a master stroke in diplomacy.

Americans Are Hurrying To Escape From Mexico

Huerta Authorities Are Permitting Citizens of United States to Proceed to the Coast Cities.

STORIES OF OUTRAGES RELATED BY REFUGEES

Reports of Americans Being Killed Not Confirmed—All Americans Will Be Out of Mexico in Short While.

Vera Cruz, April 29.—Anxiety in Vera Cruz as to friends and relatives in the interior has been greatly relieved by the events of yesterday, which show that the Mexican authorities are permitting Americans to come down to the coast. Today the American colony here, which is growing steadily, settled down to wait news from Puerto Mexico of the arrival of three trains loaded with refugees from Mexico City, which the Huerta officials promised Commander Tiedie, of the British Red Cross, would be dispatched from the capital last night.

The route from the capital to Puerto Mexico is by way of Vera Cruz. It is not expected that the trains will reach the coast before next Friday. Rear Admiral Badger will have a vessel at Puerto Mexico to meet the refugees. He probably will not send a warship as this might arouse anti-American feeling in a town which, up to the present time, has been extremely quiet. The passenger boats available here for the trip to Puerto Mexico have limited wireless equipment; consequently the arrival of the refugees trains, together with the names of those on board, may not be learned until the steamer reaches Vera Cruz. If the refugees are filling to capacity, as they probably will be, it is estimated that 300 persons will be conveyed to Puerto Mexico. It is impossible in Vera Cruz to determine how many Americans this would leave in the capital.

REFUGEES PRAISE BRITISH OFFICER.

The release by General Gustavo Maas, the federal commander outside of Vera Cruz, of the hundred refugees, who were brought in from Soledad yesterday by Commander Tiedie, clears the territory between Vera Cruz and Mexico City and the direct line of communication of all Americans with the exception of a few scattered families whose whereabouts are not known. The Soledad refugees are enthusiastic in praise of Commander Tiedie, whose determined stand they believe alone saved them from probable death or at least prolonged suffering. On being released from the penitentiary at Soledad, where they had been confined as a protection against the mob, the refugees were handed over to a Mexican major, who had no instructions as to what to do with them. A train bound for Mexico City passed, but they were not permitted to board it.

After waiting for hours in the blazing sun, Commander Tiedie's train steamed into sight, bound for Vera Cruz.

Several refugees approached the British officer and told of their plight. "I am not a soldier," said Commander Tiedie. "This train will not leave without you."

Commander Tiedie calmly insisted that he be permitted to take the Americans with him to Vera Cruz. He refused to listen to the Mexican officer's protest that he had no authority to permit the train to leave. The Mexican officer finally hastened back to the city for instructions, returning in an hour with permission for the Americans to depart.

TOLD BY REFUGEES.

The total number of Americans who had been interned in Cordoba and who were brought here yesterday was 100. They were brought here yesterday from Mexico City, where they had been held since the revolution broke out.

F. W. Lehmer, a ranch manager from Tuxtepec, whose home is in Omaha and who was on his way to Vera Cruz for a visit, not knowing of the developments here, was picked up at Tuxtepec by a soldier of the revolution. He was taken to a place where he was held for several days. He was then taken to a place where he was held for several days. He was then taken to a place where he was held for several days.

THE DICTATOR.

Commander Tiedie, of the British Red Cross, who was in the capital, was told that the train would leave for Vera Cruz. He was then taken to a place where he was held for several days. He was then taken to a place where he was held for several days. He was then taken to a place where he was held for several days.

QUERTA SEEKS SUPPORT OF THE REBEL LEADERS

Mexico City, April 29.—Dr. Ignacio Alcocer, minister of the interior, has sent further messages to all state governors and to the jefe politico in the territories urging them, in the name of the president, to rush their efforts to persuade the rebel leaders to withdraw from the national integrity. Complete amnesty is promised the rebels.

CONGRATULATIONS SENT TO VILLA AND CARRANZA

Washington, April 29.—After a conference with Secretary of State Bryan today, Dr. Alcocer has sent a special peace commissioner of the International Peace Forum, made public the text of a telegram sent to General Carranza, at the headquarters of the Mexican constitutionalists at Chihuahua. No reply has been received. Dr. Alcocer has also sent a telegram, which was signed by himself and Senator Morris Smith, to General Carranza, in which he has informed that General Carranza and Villa will be successful in the future of the nation in the present situation.

GEN. HUERTA DECLARES HE INTENDS TO STICK

Paris, April 29.—A dispatch to The Mail from Mexico City dated Thursday, says: "President Huerta says he has no idea of retiring from the presidency and also that he never thought of treating with Rear Admiral Fletcher. He says with these intentions he will join in a fight against the Americans."

FEAR FOR AMERICANS GATHERED AT FRONTERA

New Orleans, April 29.—Developments here today led to the belief that Americans in Frontera, Mexico, were in great danger. When the steamship Livingston left that port, a week ago, Consul Lishman gave Captain James Jacobson a code message to be delivered to Clarence Hebert, collector of customs here, with the request that it be sent to the state department at Washington at once.

Agents of Latin-American companies here have been unable to communicate with points in Mexico and it is believed no direct means of communication was open to the frontier coast. The Livingston, with its officers and crew of the Livingston, was usual during trouble in Central America, are reticent as to exact conditions in Frontera. The vessel brought thirteen Americans, but left them at quarantine, 100 miles down the river. It is reported the Americans got aboard the Livingston with some difficulty and those left behind feared serious results of the Americans taking Vera Cruz. There are 714 refugees at quarantine.

Keen disappointment was displayed here by the news of the man who had been in the capital and all other members of the families on board. They did not care to assume responsibility for the missing ones. It was planned, according to Commander Tiedie, that the three trains from Mexico City last night. It was planned that the three trains, which were to be able to take out all Americans and other foreigners who wished to go. This, however, is regarded here as doubtful since there has been growing evidence that Americans are not the only ones anxious to escape from the capital.

ALL AMERICANS GONE FROM TAMPIO.

Tampico, April 29.—Vera Cruz, April 29.—The American exodus from Tampico, which began last night, was virtually reached its end today with the departure of the last train. The last of the refugees sent from here to America was a group of 270. The last of the refugees sent from here to America was a group of 270.

PREACHERS TO AID GRAY BOB ISSUE

Sermons Will Be Delivered in Many Atlanta Pulpits Sunday Showing Necessity of Improvement.

The need for a greater Gray hospital will be a topic in pulpits all over the city next Sunday. So many voluntary announcements from ministers that they would mention the bond issue have come into Grady bond headquarters that it was decided yesterday to send letters to the ministers of the city requesting them to remind their congregations on Sunday that the bond issue would come up for final settlement two days later.

The interest which is being taken by the clergy in the issue calls attention to a feature of the greater Grady campaign which, perhaps, makes it unique among public questions. This is the diversified nature of the people who are working night and day for the success of the bond issue.

Overseers for hospitals.

The average public question will draw more support from one class than another; the greater Grady is drawing equal support from all classes. The business men are for it. The ministers are for it. The working people are for it. In this campaign, there are workers, doctors, laboring men, politicians, church workers, women, children—people of every kind and description. Upon the success of this issue hangs, perhaps, the future of the city. It is the only one of its kind in the South. Everyone is working for a greater Grady.

Information came into headquarters yesterday from the United States and the third ward civil club. There is a new organization of ministers in the city which has not yet its stamp of official approval upon the bond issue.

Minister to Give Aid.

Beginning today, brief editorials on the question will be flashed during the performance, upon the screens of every motion picture house in Atlanta. A typical announcement reads: "The colored vote is expected to go solidly for the new hospital. As is inevitable, a large part of the burden of Grady's improvement will be borne by the colored population. They represent only about one-third of the hospital's patients, but their quarters are in the oldest and most dilapidated part of the institution. There is no provision at present for the colored patients. The hospital is a four-room shanty surrounded by the hospital, recently donated by the Rotary club. Atlanta is the only city in the South which pays so little attention, in this respect, to the needs of its colored population. Attention has been called to the fact to the board of directors of the hospital, the ninth ward, who will not be asked to vote in the county election, as they are residents of DeKalb county."

are two things that must enter into the optical business. Combining these two with high-grade workmanship, careful attention, honest dealings, and the grinding of the greater portion of prescriptions written for us by our better oculists, has fully demonstrated the fact that there is something indescribable about the way in which we conduct our business that few opticians have been able to understand. We know when glasses are suited to your eyes, and if you need the service of an oculist we will advise, but positively will not accept your money without satisfaction from you. The Constitution is on sale in New York City by J. P. M. the day after issue. It can be had at the Hotel Pennsylvania, Broadway and Forty-second street (Times building corner), Thirty-third street and Broadway, and Twenty-third street and Broadway.

The Constitution is not responsible for advance payments to out-of-town local carriers, dealers or agents.

ENDING OR MENDING.

A significant feature in the long series of attacks upon the gambling features of the New York Cotton exchange is the action taken by the American Cotton Manufacturers' association, calling for the abolition of the institution unless it conforms to its legitimate functions.

Dissatisfaction with the exchange has reached a focus when the most representative body of cotton millmen in the country go on record as favoring its abolition. If its harmful speculative influences cannot be curbed.

The fight for regulation of the exchange was led by Lewis W. Parker, of South Carolina. Mr. Parker pointed out that only recently cotton had been quoted on the real value of the material, and 2 cents below the price the producer was obtaining in the south, where the staple is produced.

Such a condition manifestly is injurious, uneconomic and inexcusable. The practice inevitably has a tendency to derange the market, to delude the producer and to work loss both to him and to the honest seller.

The best test of a cotton exchange contract that is valid is found in the demand of the Vicksburg exchange for "an exchange contract upon a fair and honest basis." That stipulation is broad enough to cover the fluctuations of business and rigid enough to eliminate the manipulative feature, if it is persistently enforced.

The New York concern has recently shown a tendency to reform its ways. Anticipating action by congress, it has revised its classifications and promised to abandon the indefensible custom of using a lot of dirty old cotton stored in New York upon which to base quotations.

But even these compromises have not convinced the millmen, whose interest lies in a fair and square administration of the exchange. They have had sufficient experience with the New York Cotton exchange to justify skepticism as to its reformed good intentions. They demand proof that is more convincing, and if that is not forthcoming they are for the wiping out of the exchange altogether.

And the millmen are right.

THE WARBUND REBUKED.

Unless their hides are as thick as their consciences, the men who are plotting to bring on war with Mexico at any cost must have passed an uncomfortable half-hour over the rebuke the president indirectly handed them in connection with the Williams incident.

The father of --a:olph Summerlin had been asked to denounce the administration for listening to talk of mediation, after his son had been killed. J. Vera Cruz. The murderous and sophistical argument was that to avenge blood already shed we should proceed to spend more good American blood and treasure.

This patriotic old Georgian refused the invitation to treason. He answered that his life and the lives of his four surviving sons were at the disposal of his country, but that they stood on bloody scheme aimed at gratifying private greed and private ambition.

President Wilson wrote a personal letter to Mr. Summerlin, thanking him for his expressions and taking occasion to express appreciation of the Summerlin brand of patriotism.

Between the patriotism that stands for love of and loyalty to country and the "patriotism" that would draft lives and public money into its sinister and selfish service, there is an impassable gulf.

WHAT THE SAVAGES THOUGHT.

It stirred and provoked as the adventures of Othello are the adventures of Colonel Roosevelt in the Brazilian jungles.

A few weeks ago he tumbled into a series of rapids on a turbulent river, but came up smiling.

Then he was reported as being engaged in exploring the "River of Doubt," a happy description of his own strenuous career.

Now news comes that in the far untrodden wilderness he has unearthed a tribe of savages who have just seen their first white man, and that man the Colonel.

Strange must have been the emotions of the Colonel as he gazed upon this historic tribe, naked as the day they were born. But what did the savages think of their first encounter with the world's paramount race? That would be interesting to know!

The average savage's initial experience with civilization is as gazed upon this historic tribe, naked as the day they were born. But what did the savages think of their first encounter with the world's paramount race? That would be interesting to know!

GRAND MONUMENT CLEANING UP

Money Provided, But So Far No Work Done on Only Piece of Statuary in Business District.

Although the money has been actually provided for cleaning Grand monument, and although the city has a force of laborers sufficient to do the job in less than thirty minutes, the prettiest and most interesting spot in the civic heart of Atlanta is almost hidden beneath a crust of dirt.

The monument is the only piece of statuary in the business district of the city. For years it has attracted the attention of visitors, but of late the city has given so little attention to the monument that instead of being the object of pleasant comment, it is causing criticism to be directed against the city officials for their neglect.

Work Not Yet Done.
Recently a resolution was passed in council authorizing that the money necessary for cleaning the monument be appropriated. Chief John Jester, of the sanitary department, promised that the monument would be cleaned as soon as the crematory force was free to be put back on the streets. Some days ago the city entered into a contract with a contractor for the removal of the clinkers from the crematory, and the sanitary department announced that the force had been put on the streets.

Mayor Woodward also promised to have the monument cleaned, but it appears the matter has been entirely forgotten.

A group of ladies and gentlemen, apparently from the north, passed at the foot of the monument Wednesday afternoon.

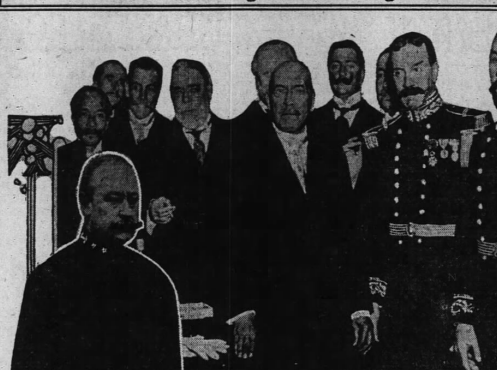

"I wonder whose monument that is," asked one of the ladies, who turned to look at the monument.

"Why, I'm sure I don't know," replied one of the gentlemen. "I cannot recognize it."

A citizen, blushing with shame, stepped up and informed the party that the monument was erected to the memory of Henry W. Grady.

"Why Grady? Why Grady?" asked one of the ladies. "I have never heard of him."

ent Nichol, of the mine, three strikers were seen to tumble down the hillside.

MET DEATH DRESSING WOUND.
Fighting at Walsenburg between strikers, militia and mine guards lasted five hours. Major P. F. Nichol, of the hospital corps, met his death through the left breast while rescuing the wounds of a comrade within 150 yards of the strikers' position. Firing ceased shortly after 3 o'clock.

With two troops of United States cavalry in the Fremont county fields and citizen volunteers and militia on guard in Boulder county, state officials tonight prepared for sudden outbreaks in Las Animas and Huerfano counties, where federal troops were not expected to arrive before tomorrow morning. The militia detachment relieved by federal soldiers in Fremont county was hastening to Colonel Verdeckberg's assistance at Walsenburg.

Members of the legislature continued to reach the capital for informal conferences preparatory to the convening of the special session on May 4, but tonight no tangible program had been decided on.

550 STRIKERS TO YIELD ARMS.
Under a truce agreement which reached the capital at Walsenburg late today, approximately 550 strikers to be taken into custody, but will be subjected to prosecution in the courts for killing of the federal troops.

Nine "defenders" are not dead, but are believed to have reached the Majestic mine; three strikers are thought to have been killed in the latest outbreak in the Colorado labor war.

Strikers estimated to number three hundred attacked the property early today. The battle lasted several hours, after which the strikers disappeared in the hills.

GODBEY A SUICIDE, DECLARES BULLARD

Atlanta—the dead man was his brother. The local physician expressed his belief that Paul Godbey took his own life.

Unhappy About Godbey.
Paul Godbey's people have been uneasy about him for some time, and have always carefully watched him. The secretary of the United Mine Workers of America, who was in the city, said that he had seen Godbey in the city.

The suicide theory.
He gave the following as his reasons for believing Godbey's death to have been self-inflicted:
The body was found lying on the floor of his back. A large bullet hole could be seen behind his right ear. The course of the bullet went straight through and lodged underneath the bone behind the left ear, where it was later removed by the undertaker. ROCK AND DIRT MOVE INTO CULEBRA CUT

But the Engineers Are Gaining on the Treacherous Slides.

Panama, April 29.—Rock and dirt are still moving down the Culebra slide into the Culebra cut, but the engineers who have been fighting the treacherous slides in this vicinity are at last gaining upon nature. Pears that the opening of the canal, set for January 1915, would have to be postponed indefinitely have been growing less each day for the dredges and steam shovels have been taking out the dirt and rock much faster than it slid into the canal.

The Culebra slide, just to the south of the Culebra cut, is still moving at a rapid rate, and it is hoped it will remain at rest. The engineers are showing far back the treacherous hillside with some breaks already showing. The engineers are showing far back the treacherous hillside with some breaks already showing.

Refuge Disposal Plans for Chicago.
(From The Engineering Record.)
Hedger's of Chicago, who are in charge of the disposal of the refugees in Chicago, are recommending that the refugees be sent to the grounds of the Chicago city waste commission in a report submitted March 31. After studying the proposition from every angle with a large corps of assistants since January 1914, it was concluded that the grounds of sanitation and economy the treatment of garbage by the city is the logical method to pursue. Landfills made of ash, street sweeping and basin cleaning. Rubbish, as far as possible, is to be burned in the refuse plant to landfills. With modern methods of handling the refuse, the treatment of the different classes of refuse will result in the elimination of nuisances due to dumps, odors from refuse plants and nuisances due to the collection of waste in open vessels.

NEGRO DEFIES ARREST AND FIRES ON POLICE

Black Barricades Himself in House and Offers Resistance.

A near repetition of the famous Pittsburgh riot occurred Wednesday afternoon, when George Glover, a negro, of No. 21 Luster street, barricaded himself in his home and defied arrest by the police for half an hour. Call Officer Barfield had gone to Glover's home on the complaint of his wife, who stated that he had beaten her and run her from the house into the street.

The officer found the door barricaded by means of trunks piled up against it. The negro opened fire on the policeman, who was compelled to retreat until he could secure the reserves.

Several policemen rushed to aid him, and with their aid a man named Whitaker, they proceeded to enter the house. The negro then surrendered.

TWO HUSBANDS GIVEN DIVORCES WEDNESDAY

Two divorces were granted Wednesday in Fulton superior court. Total divorce was granted to Rollin H. Kimball from Orleana Kimball, who sought the divorce on the ground that his wife jeered at him on the street, to his extreme embarrassment, and threatened to kill him.

Total divorce was also granted to H. L. McConnell from Beulah McConnell. McConnell alleged that his wife spent his money foolishly in "ice cream joints," neglected her home and children, and at length, in his absence, took all the household goods except a bed and mattress and went to her mother in South Carolina.

W. B. Wofford, the Atlanta man captured several days ago by the Mexican federales and thrown into jail at Cordoba, is safe under the protection of the United States soldiers at Vera Cruz, according to the telegram which he sent on Wednesday to his brother, George T. Wofford of Birmingham, who telephoned the news to his four relatives in Atlanta.

Mr. Wofford has been the superintendent of the plant of the Mexican Rubber company, at Oaxaca, for about twelve years. He was hastening to Vera Cruz, when captured.

His message stating his Atlanta relatives of his safety is as follows: "Safe in Vera Cruz, under protection U. S. army."

STAGE ROBS ATLANTA OF A POPULAR CLERK

The stage has robbed Atlanta of one of her most popular and widely known hotel clerks in the returning of "Red" Jenkins, lately of the Winifred hotel, to the footlights with his talented wife.

JACKSON IS APPOINTED UNION TRUST RECEIVER

Judge Bell of Fulton superior court has appointed A. W. Jackson as permanent receiver of the Union Trust company, upon the petition of the Federal Reserve bank, owners of 250 shares of the Union Trust company's stock. The petitioner alleges that the Union Trust company sold approximately $100,000 worth of stock at one-third cash and the rest in notes, and put so much of the money in the pockets of its promoters that the company derived no benefit. It is alleged in the petition that falseness was allowed 25 per cent commission. The Union Trust company pleaded that it has been unable to collect the notes due it.

SIDEWALKS CONTRACT IS APPROVED BY MAYOR

Satisfied that Alderman John S. Lane

Cwens has no connection with the corporation Mayor Woodward yesterday announced that he approved the contract the city entered into with W. L. Babco and the Cement Stone and Tile company, for laying all the city sidewalks in 1914. The mayor commented that from his investigations he is satisfied with the present status of the company, and remarked that if there is anything wrong it will come out later.

The contract with the Cement Stone and Tile company is regarded to be the best the city has ever made for tile sidewalks. W. L. Babco, president of the corporation, says he estimates that the city will save approximately $16,000 for the property owners under the new contract.

Lower courts held the claim of Alexander Eccles & Co. against the railroad to be not valid and an appeal was taken, which resulted in the decision today.

Bismarck—the Greatest of the Germans

BISMARCK, like all Germans, prized Personal Liberty as the breath of life—a NATURAL RIGHT to be guarded and defended at any cost. Among our millions of law-abiding German-American citizens there is not a man who does not consider it insolent tyranny of the most odious kind for any legislation to issue this command: "Thou shalt NOT eat this—thou shalt NOT drink that." Germans know that there is no evil in the light wines and beers of their fathers. EVIL ONLY IS IN THE MAN WHO MISUSES THEM. Fifty-seven years ago ANHEUSER-BUSCH founded their great institution upon the tenets of the Constitution of the United States. During these fifty-seven years they have honestly brewed an honest beer—the kind that has added to the temperance of nations. Their great brand—BUDWEISER—is demanded throughout the world. Its sales exceed any other beer by millions of bottles, proving it to be in a class by itself.
